

Our home was deluged with marketing calls before the DoNotCall list. These calls are an invasion into our home and caused numerous tie-ups of our phonenumber, often causing us to miss important medical-related calls. This Act must NOT be overridden.